

Beat hay fever before it beats you

Your partner in managing allergies daily

Check Today's Pollen

Pollen & Allergen Tracker

Melbourne CBD

Confirm

Last updated 25-10-2025 11:21 PM

 Good conditions outdoor activities are fine

Current Pollen Index

Current Allergen Levels

Tree

Very Low

Grass

Low

Ragweed

None

Dust

Low

Allergy Exposure Map

Explore Safe (green) and Risk (red) trees across Melbourne.

Filter Trees

Show All

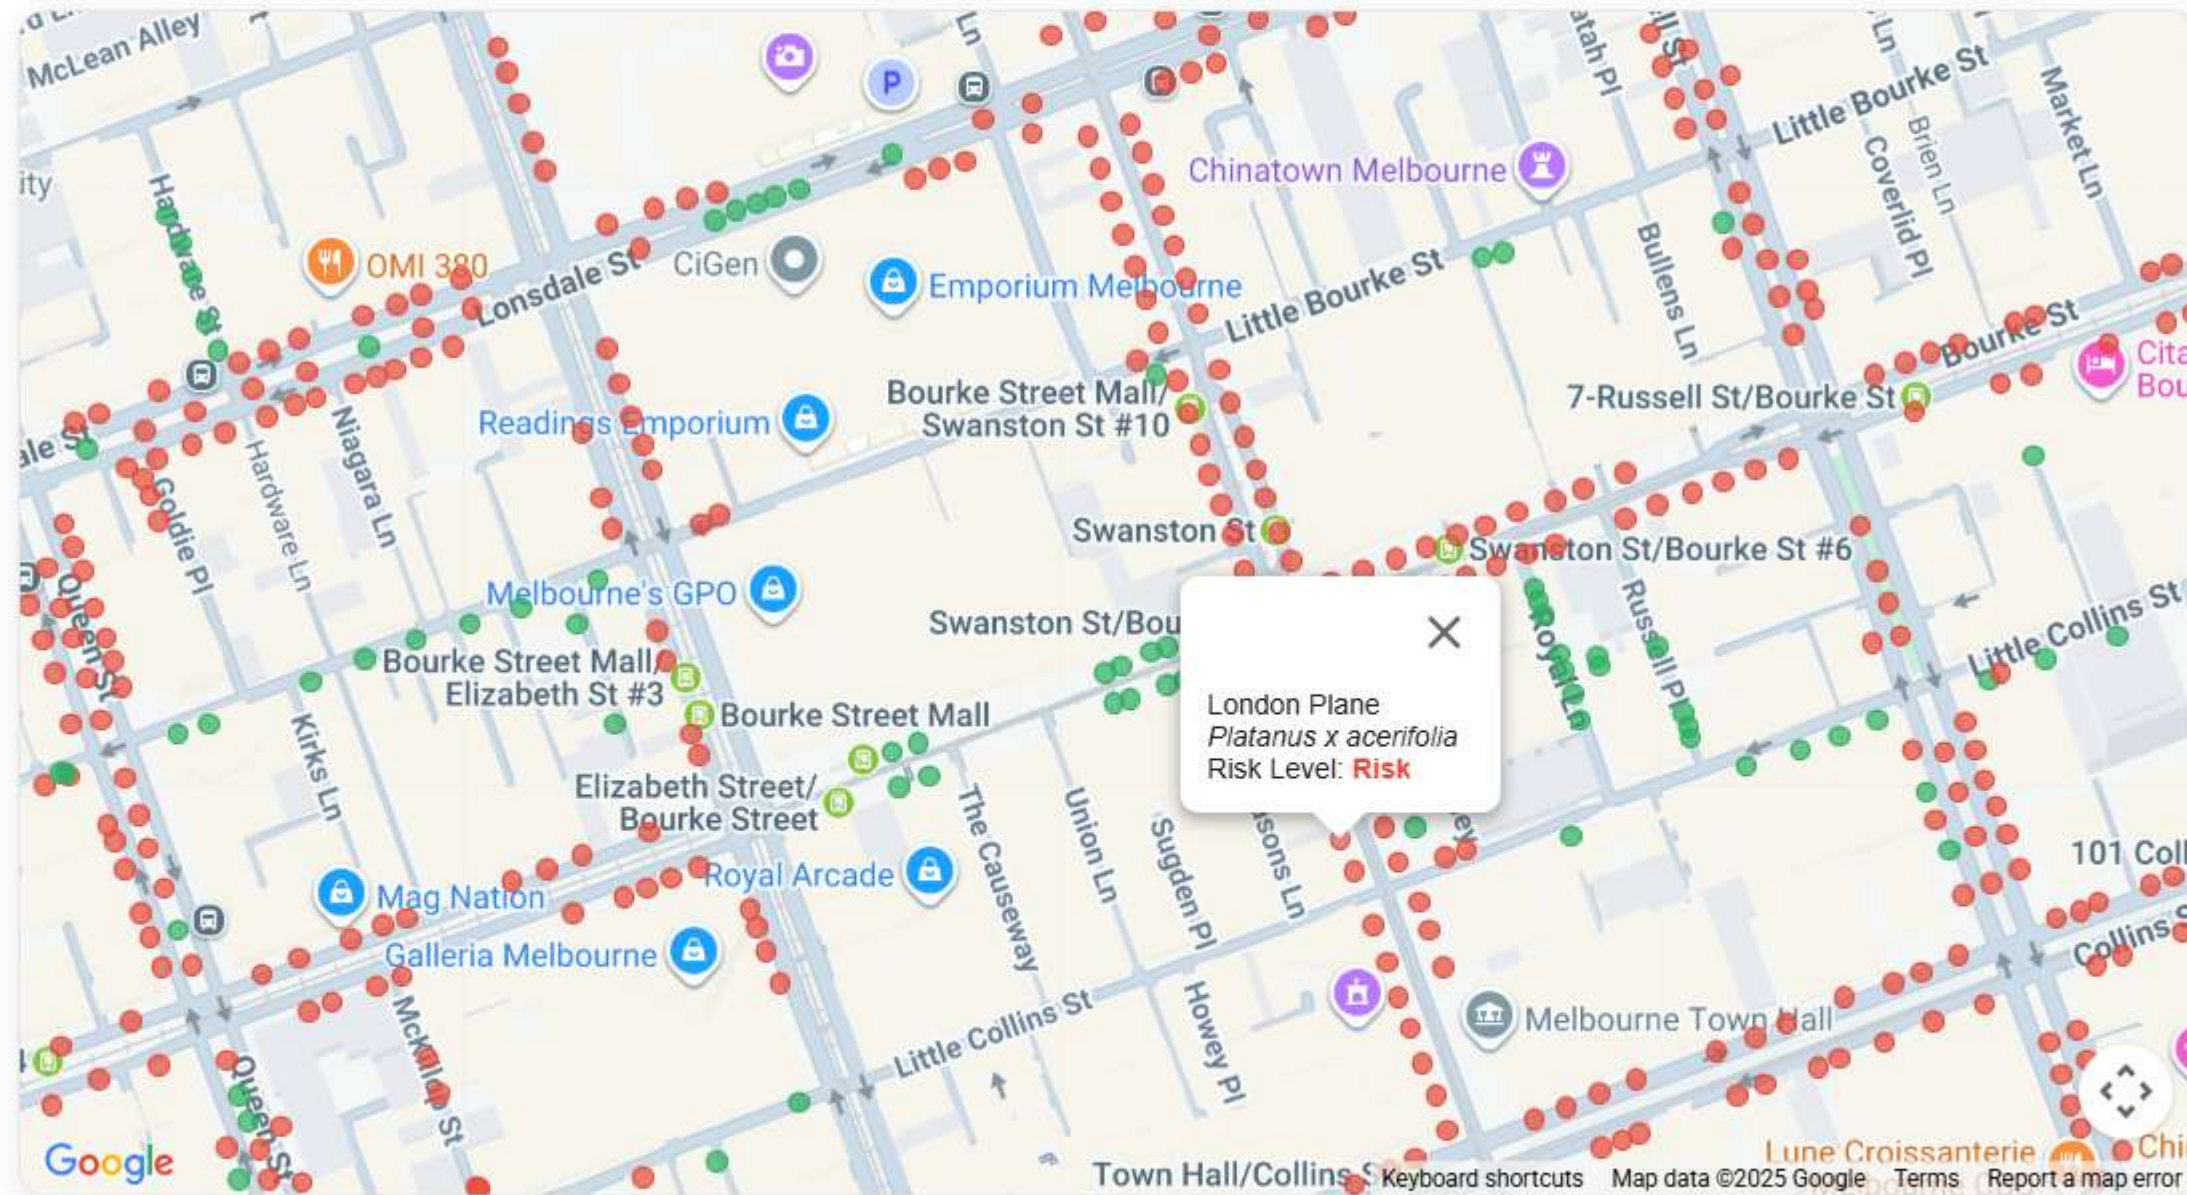

● Safe

● Risk

☒ Show Municipal Boundary

Zoom: 17

Breathe Easy with AI: Identify Hay Fever Plants That Cause Allergies

Change Image

Image uploaded successfully.

Eucalyptus

RISK

Strong match

Potential allergen risk. Avoid close contact.

Eucalyptus camaldulensis

RISK

Good match

Potential allergen risk. Avoid close contact.

Eucalyptus globulus

RISK

Weak match

Potential allergen risk. Avoid close contact.

Drag a Plant

Australian Oak

Ryegrass

Rose

Australian Oak

Pollen risk: High

Oak trees produce large amounts of pollen that can trigger hay fever.

This plant is not safe for you to plant in your garden!

